

HITS AND PREVIEWS AUSTRALIAN TOUR – MARCH & APRIL 2012

THE MCCLYMONTS ANNOUNCE THEIR FIRST TASMANIAN HEADLINE TOUR.

After spending most of 2011 in the USA touring to promote their Wrapped Up Good album to the American market The McClymonts have returned home to announce their first ever headline tour of Tasmania in April 2012.

The girls are looking forward to performing at home to an Aussie country crowd and to hit the road on their new tour – Hits and Previews Australian Tour 2012

Brooke said "This is the first time we have ever toured Tasmania as the headline act. We toured there once when we were just starting out and supported Lee Kernaghan there. We are so excited to be taking our new Hits and Previews Tour around Tassy as we have been wanting to get back there for the last couple of years and finally it is happening. This whole tour is all about visiting all the places we have not yet been able to do our own show at and this Tasmanian Tour is way overdue".

Sam added "We are doing something on the 2012 tour that we have never done before. The Previews in the tour name means we are going to play songs that will be on the new album that will come out mid-year. The album will be called 'Two Worlds Collide'. We have been busy writing the whole time we were away and we are so looking forward to previewing the new songs to our Australian fans and getting their feedback."

Mollie said "Our new single will also be in this show. It is called 'How Long Have You Known' and it will be released to radio on January 16. In another first for us, our record company will be releasing the new single both physically and digitally. This one was produced by Nathan Taylor who also worked with us on Wrapped Up Good and he is the guy who produces all of Taylor Swift's music."
